

YOU ARE INVITED TO A FREE EVENT!

Berkeley Public Education Foundation and Berkeley Unified School District invite all BUSD families, students, faculty and staff to a free, private evening at Lawrence Hall of Science to view the exhibit:

Wednesday April 28 or Thursday April 29, 2010

6:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Lawrence Hall of Science

The RACE exhibit explores three primary themes:

- É The science of human variation
- É The history of the idea of race
- É The contemporary experience of race and racism in the United States

This event is FREE of charge and open to all BUSD families, students, faculty, and staff.

Doors open at 6:00 p.m., event ends at 8:30 p.m.

Note that the exhibit takes approximately one hour to view.

Lawrence Hall is located at 1 Centennial Drive, uphill from the east end of the UC Berkeley campus.

Limited Free Parking Available!

FREE bus service to and from LHS!

Buses will depart From Rosa Parks and Malcolm X Elementary at 6:15 and leave Lawrence Hall at 8:15. No reservations required.

Directions Via AC Transit:

The #65 bus runs hourly every day from the downtown Berkeley BART station to LHS. For more information, please visit the Bay Area Traveler Guide at 511 or call "511" from all Bay Area area codes and ask about AC Transit.

Directions Via the UC Berkeley Shuttle Service:

The University runs shuttle buses Monday through Friday from the Berkeley BART Station to the main campus, and from the main campus to LHS. Call 510-642-5149 or 643-5708, or go to Hill Service Shuttle for details.

This evening is generously funded by Berkeley Public Education Foundation

For more information, contact the BUSD Office of Family and Community Partnerships at 510-644-8991

Race: Are We So Different?* was developed by the American Anthropological Association in collaboration with the Science Museum of Minnesota, and is presented nationally by the Best Buy Children's Foundation. Locally sponsored by KQED.

For more information contact the BUSD Office of Family and Community Partnerships at 644-8991.