

YOU ARE INVITED TO A FREE EVENT!

Berkeley Public Education Foundation and Berkeley Unified School District

invite all BUSD families, students, faculty and staff to a free, private evening at Lawrence Hall of Science to view the exhibit:

Thursday October 28, 2010
6:00 - 8:30 p.m.
Lawrence Hall of Science

Scream Machines is a head-spinning, stomach-churning exhibition for thrill-seekers of all ages. Interactive exhibits, artifacts and images invite visitors to explore the physics of roller coasters and the physiology and psychology of thrill-seeking.

<http://lawrencehallofscience.org/visit/exhibit/scream>

This event is FREE of charge and open to all BUSD families, students, faculty, and staff.

Doors open at 6:00 p.m., event ends at 8:30 p.m.

Note that the exhibit takes approximately one hour to view.

Lawrence Hall is on 1 Centennial Drive, east of the UC Berkeley campus, below Grizzly Peak, and just past the UC Botanical Gardens

Limited Free Parking Available – Look for Signs

Directions Via AC Transit:

The #65 bus runs hourly every day from the downtown Berkeley BART station to LHS. For more information, please visit the Bay Area Traveler Guide at 511 or call "511" from all Bay Area area codes and ask about AC Transit.

Directions Via the UC Berkeley Shuttle Service:

The University runs shuttle buses Monday through Friday from the Berkeley BART Station to the main campus, and from the main campus to LHS. Call 510-642-5149 or 643-5708, or go to Hill Service Shuttle for details.

This evening is generously funded by Berkeley Public Education Foundation
<http://www.bpef-online.org>

For More information, contact the BUSD Office of Family and Community Partnerships 644-8991

Scream Machines was designed and built by the Ontario Science Centre, Ontario, Canada.